

PRODIGY COLLEGE PLANNING

Showing Families How to Lower the Out of Pocket Expense of Paying for College

✦ Prodigy College Planning was founded to make college a reality for families. For most, a college education for our children is the single most expensive decision we will make outside of buying a home; yet it is ill prepared for, at best. One thing is certain; parents cannot begin the process of planning for college attendance too early. It is for these parents that Prodigy College Planning was conceived. Prodigy College Planning is a Better Business Bureau Accredited Business with an A+ rating!

✦ Prodigy College Planning supplies parents and college bound students with a unique solution that assists families in navigating the uncharted process of college preparation, from financial advice to college admissions insights. The company serves as a liaison for families as they handle all college processing needs.

The firm has everything parents and students would need and more, handling all college and university processing needs. Some services include designing plans specifically aimed at family financial environments, and how to help those in need of more affordable alternatives to fund higher education. The company assists students and families in selecting schools that align best with the strengths and interests of the student, while taking into account the parents' abilities to finance the fit.

✦ Selecting Schools

The firm is considered invaluable in terms of selecting schools, as they acknowledge how important ACT and SAT scores are. With this information, the company can then extend counseling services, ACT and SAT online prep modules, individual coaching, essay help, college application reviews, just to name a few of the services.

Commensurate with these services, Prodigy College Planning gives parents and students the information needed to enhance the chance of finding and receiving optimum financial aid offers for which they are eligible. The firm aims to help parents obtain all that is deserved financially; giving students the resources they need to find the perfect college fit while minimizing the impact on a family's standard of living.

 Personalized Solutions

Families and college bound students alike commend the firm for its ability to create unique plans tailored to each individual based on interest, resources, and capabilities. The solution is comprised of three stages, Discovery, Evaluation and Implementation. The result is Peace of Mind.

 Plan:

Planning is the most vital component of the college preparation process. With a current undergraduate degree taking 5-6 years to achieve, parents are obligated to pay thousands of extra dollars more than is necessary. Planning to choose the correct college and career path can alleviate these extra expenses. Using the College Planning outline and Roadmap you will receive a custom strategy to help you reach your unique college education goals. With the Prodigy College Planning outline and Roadmap we will analyze your current situation and help you determine your college needs.

 Peace of Mind:

The firm is relentless in finding the most efficient method to fund education. We strive to enable families to be more financially stable and prepared for life without being forced to make stressful financial sacrifices. This phase of the process involves designing a realistic funding plan that works alongside each families' situations and aspirations. Also taken into consideration is the enhancement of their financial environment and mitigation of risk. When done holistically, the plan supplies families with a better understanding of how they will strategically fund college while working toward other long-term financial goals.

The firm has put these plans in place to provide every possible resource to over thousands of families who have searched for a more efficient way to pay for college. We are considered one of the most beneficial resources for parents and students alike. Prodigy is recognized as an industry leader for its direct impact on families and students. We ensure that clients are met with knowledgeable and compassionate professionals who are dedicated to reducing confusion and maximizing financial opportunities during such an overwhelming stage of life.

“He who fails to plan is planning to fail.”
